CORPORATE & M&A LAWYER

Wes Forgione

FOUNDER & PRINCIPAL LAWYER

Wes Forgione built his reputation as a corporate quarterback: the lawyer businesses call first when something comes up. Over the past 10 years, he has closed more than 400 deals and counselled more than 400 companies, from founders just starting out to family businesses planning their next move. Before founding his own practice, Wes served as a partner and senior legal counsel at a prominent regional law firm in British Columbia, advising on complex M&A and commercial transactions across Western Canada. He works every file personally, from the first call to closing, and explains each step in plain, clear language.
